"If We Knew."

BY MRS. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

In a recent number we copied a scrap of poetry with this significant title. It struck us very forcibly as containing a profitable lesson, and has haunted us daily, ever since.

We have been sitting, this rich, golden afternoon, on our veranda, all alone. Before us stands the grand old hill; on our right lies the beautiful Hudson. The air is laden with rich perfumes from a wilderness of flowers; but no wind disturbs the trees, or makes music in their branches. The bees are so busy with their provident labors that their song is very low and gentle. The humming-bird, darting in and out of the honeysuckle over our head, though equally industrious, is more demonstrative in his wonderful activity. The patient old mother turkey's "cluck, cluck," by which she calls her numerous brood about her, and their "pe-ep, peep," in reply; the self-conceited old gobbler, as he spreads his train and brushes the ground with his wings, in faint imitation of far off thunder, or his arrogant "goble, goble" in defiance of some imagined enemy; the roll of the carriage, and the swift, glad music of the horses' feet on the smooth road below, are almost the only sounds or signs of life we hear. The husband — "house-bond" — the most sweetly significant word in the English language, is toiling in the hot and dusty city; the children are all scattered; the grand children, mischievous, merry little rogues, are not as they should be, near grandma's chair; and the servants, in the kitchen or laundry to-day, move as quietly as the wind on the tree-tops. It is so still! We could hardly be more alone if we were on the highest peak of "Castle Hill," and, as we sit in this wonderful quiet, those words, "If we Knew," are stirring our hearts with a strange and solemn power.

Ah! if in early youth "we knew!" If we could look along the map of life clear to the end, and see all the breakers and quicksands which, by patience and self-control we could have avoided, how different would be the view we now take of the "backward track!"—No doubt, it is well, in many ways, that we cannot read the future; trials and sorrows that no skill or foresight could have turned aside, would have been doubled by anticipation and foreknowledge; and yet—we doubt if there are many, who looking back from the "halfway house," would not willingly endure the double pain and sorrow, if they might have had the power to force the inevitable result of certain courses, and profiting by this foreknowledge, have avoided the danger of the sin.

Brother! Sister! Would you be impatient or cross to your little playmate, "if you know" those little "baby fingers" would "never trouble you again?"

Two little boys were at play—one of three years, the other but eight months. Both wanted the rocking-chair. Full of health and animal spirits, the dispute ran high, and, at last, the older struck the little one. Only a few days and the baby's hands were folded in "snowy grace" upon the cold and quiet heart, and laid in the grave. A short time after, hearing bitter sobs in the garden, the mother found the lonely brother—himself but just past babyhood—lying under the peach trees, watching with eager eyes some birds flying over his head, and calling between his sobs, "Oh, birdies! little birdies! Fly up! Fly up higher! and tell Jesus Christ if he will only let Geordie come back to me, he may have the rocking-chair all the time, and I will never, never strike him again—never! never!"

Oh, Father! Don't be harsh with your son. He disobeyed your commands, and of course he has done wrong; but he is only a little child.—It was overflux of exuberant life, and not wilful disobedience. If you could look forward to what soon may be, how leniently would you judge—how gently would you chide; and, by your gentleness secure the obedience much more effectually.

Ah, poor, tried mother! You are very weary, and half sick. Your eyes are heavy for want of sleep, and your head throbbing with the noise and shouts, and wild frolics of your little ones. But it is health and strength and life. Be patient. If, soon, with hot and tearless eyes, you watch by the little crib where fever may conquer that life, but late so joyous and full of activity, can you endure what "may be," if you have scattered "thorns, not roses, for your reaping by and by?"

"I have asked you twenty times to mend this coat, and it's not done yet. 'No time!' How long would it have taken? But, well—I can go ragged, I suppose. You take little heed to my wishes or advice. You must take your own way, or you'll not be satisfied."

Husband! you love your wife; you would be indignant if a looker on should hint that you misjudged, or were over-exacting. Why do you say such ugly, bitter things? Your heart, or that silent monitor, your conscience, tells you that she did not mean to disregard your wishes or advice. She was tired, or overtaxed with care and frequent interruptions; or, perhaps sickness is creeping upon her. Whatever the reason, the offense was but a "little thing." Even if she was self-willed, or irritable, be patient with her. You know a certain tone of your voice, or a love look from your eye, would have brought her to your side in an instant—sorry, self-upbraiding—loving and honoring you with her whole heart. Ah, "If you knew!" These first morose, fault-finding words, perhaps are "leaving on her heart a shadow—leaving on your heart a stain" which may be the beginning of coldness, mistrust and defiance—or possibly a deeper sin, where, but for them, you could have secured joy and gladness, growing sweeter and purer day by day! Deal gently. You, her husband, can make her happy, loving and good; or you can make her irritable, unloving and evil.

"John! Why do you always wait and wait, and hinder me so? You can come when I call you, just as well as to keep me waiting; if you only chose to do so. But you are always so obediently bent on taking your own time, regardless of other people's comfort."

Wife! It is just such little impatient, waspish words, that tempt your husband to seek quiet, comfort and appreciation away from your side. No matter if he speaks "just as impatiently" to you "fifty times a day," show him a better way. Why retort, or shrink from the "little shadows" which you can, by gentleness, dispel? You have even more power in your gentleness, than your husband has in his strength. Yield a little, it is not hard, and you reap a glorious reward. Is not your husband's love and confidence worth keeping by a little patience and forbearance? But if not for present joy, to ward off future misery at least, "set a guard over the doors of your mouth that you sin not with your lips," and to tread life's pathway with him to whom you have vowed a wife's fealty, and if called to sit in the desolation of widowhood, there shall not be added to that sorrow, the anguish of self-upbraiding, for little services impatiently rendered or love requited by coldness or irritability.

When we have passed through all the labors and trials of earlier life, and in full maturity, or just on the decline, recall the friends of our youth, and sweeter family ties, how the heart aches with the memory of

"Hasty words or actions
Strewn along our backward track,"

And vainly yearns for one more opportunity for the better performance of our whole duty in all love, fidelity, and patience. But God

"Pity us all,
Who vainly the faults of youth recall;
For of all sad words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these: "I might have been!"

—The Mother at Home.

At a Sheriff's sale at Wilkesbarre recently, after some very lively bidding upon some property, which had been run up to the sum of $101, a bidder went one cent better, a second bid one cent, when a waggish attorney bid "one hundred and one dollars and three cents and a postage stamp that had been used once." The bid was taken, the condition complied with, and the matter stands of record in the Sheriff's office, duly receipted on the writ.

The Results of Guerillaism in the County.

The Republican party in Old Huntingdon has been defeated, and the Guerillas are glorying in their shame.—The traitors to their party have succeeded in deceiving enough Republicans in the county to give the victory to the Democrats. Swoope and McCoy, our Legislative candidates, are probably defeated. Our candidates for Prothonotary, County Commissioner, Co. Treasurer and Director of the Poor, are defeated by the combined vote of the Guerillas and Democrats. To-day Scott, the Fishers, Dorris, Wharton, Cremer, Logan, the Orladys, and their tools, are shouting with the rankest Copperheads over their victory over the Republican party of the county.—Already we hear curses loud and deep from Republicans deceived by the Guerillas. Men have been defeated by them who are better Republicans and as good men as any Guerilla can claim to be. The Guerillas are to day the tail-end of the Democratic party, and there they must stay as long as there is a Democrat holding office by their treason to their party. There can be no compromise with Traitors. The Republicans who proved themselves true to their party nominations will never vote for a guerilla, or associate with him politically, as long as the present campaign can be remembered. We would rather be a defeated candidate a thousand times than to be in the shoes of the guerillas. They have received all from the Republican party of the county they will ever get.

The State Doubtful.

The returns from Pennsylvania indicate the election of Gov. Geary as doubtful. The Republican strongholds have decreased majorities, while some of the Democratic counties report gains. Allegheny county will give 5000 for Geary, and Philadelphia 4000. In Ohio the Republican Governor Hayes will be re-elected by about 5000 majority.

☞Rash Fisher, on last night went to the Democratic headquarters and abused the leaders for not sticking closer to the bargain he made with them to defeat the Republican ticket. Rash wants to be considered a Republican. He is about as good a one as Bruce Petriken, Geo. Jackson, and others who worked with him on yesterday.

☞The Republicans who remained true to their party will not leave for salt river—they intend to stay at home to attend to the guerillas.

A few Words of Soberness.

Whatever may be the result, of the election yesterday, the criminations and recriminations during the campaign, will redound to the discredit and injury of those who were active in their opposition to the regularly nominated ticket after the reaction consequent upon all excitements, has taken place. After the election is over and the people come to consider, in all earnestness, the result of their work and the damage inflicted upon their party, which will take years to repair, they will then turn to see who was the cause of the disaster. We write in no spirit of malice. To some we entertain the kindest of feelings, because we believe they were led into the snare only to be used by those whose natural instincts are to either rule or ruin. The majesty of the people may be trifled with for a brief season but when they come to sit down and reflect over the designs of a few who have enveigled them into the disastrous and inexcusable folly of defeating or attempting to defeat their own party, their vengeance is sure and swift, and the authors will surely be punished. Retributive Justice is sometimes slow, but as sure to come as the sun rises in the east. No clique or clan can long live in any party, when it attempts to take the life-blood of that party. The masses may be deceived for a period, but the reaction is bound to follow. The active part taken in the campaign just past, will hang over them like a withering curse for years to come, and they will only begin to feel it, after the mischief has been done. That the masses of the party sustained the whole sale onslaught made upon the regularly nominated ticket, we do not believe, but it will be next to impossible to arrive at the true result, on account of the mixed voting of the Democratic party. However it may be, and whatever the result may be, it will not relieve the guilty of the responsibility of the attempt to disrupt the party. We are sorry for some, and wish that had been otherwise with them, for we believe they went into it under a mistaken idea. Men were brought prominently before the people as active and zealous partizans in the fight and made use of by the real leaders, who remained in the back ground and chuckled at the awkward position in which they had placed their unsuspecting dupes. We repeat it is in the kindest spirit we write this, and those who heeded not our words of warning during the campaign will discover that it is not us alone but the people who will hold them to a strict accountability for their misdeeds. The leaders will be made to suffer for their perfidy, and their small fry lackeys will be despised and kept on the out-skirts of the party where they properly belong.

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN FRAUD—It appears that the frauds discovered in the Methodist book concern, consists in the alleged fact, that the son of Dr. Porter, one of the agents, has received commissions for the past eight or nine years, averaging not less than seven per cent, for purchasing printing paper for the Constitution.—That is, the agent permitted the son, who is a paper-broker, to charge a heavy commission for doing what it was the agent's duty to do himself.—Report says that the purchase on which commissions have been allowed, amounted to $150,000 per annum; and also that his son sold papor to the concern at a value which gave him a still greater profit. Irregularities are also reported in the binding department, but no particulars are known. A rigid investigation is progressing, and the implicated parties have been dismissed.

Thanksgiving Day.

Washington, Oct. 8.—By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION.

The year which is drawing to a close has been free from pestilence; health has prevailed throughout the land; abundant crops reward the labors of the husbandman; commerce and manufactures have successfully prosecuted their peaceful paths; the mines and forests have yielded liberally; the nation has increased in wealth and in strength; peace has prevailed and its blessings have advanced every interest. of the people in every part of the Union; harmony and fraternal interest restored are obliterating the marks of past conflict and estrangement, burdens have been lightened, means have been increased, civil and religious liberty are secured to every inhabitant of this land, whose soil is trod by none but freemen. It becomes a people thus favored to make acknowledgment to the Supreme Author from whom such blessings flow, of their gratitude and their dependence, to render praise and thanksgiving for the same, and devoutly to implore a continuance of God's mercies.

Therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend that Thursday, the 18th of November next, be observed as a day of thanksgiving and of praise and prayer to Almighty God, the Creator and Ruler of the universe. And I do further recommend to all the people of the United States to assemble on that day in their accustomed places of public worship, and to unite in the homage and praise due to the bountiful Father of all mercies, and in fervent prayer for the continuance of the manifold blessings He has vouchsafed to us as a people.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed, this 5th day of October, A. D. 1869, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-fourth.

By the President: U. S. GRANT.
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

THE FRESHET.

Immense Destruction of Property.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5.—The water at Fairmount Dam has receded nearly six feet since yesterday. The streets which were flooded are now nearly dry, but covered with mud and debris left by the water. Hundreds of cellars are filled, and at the large establishments steam fire engines are engaged in pumping out the water.—The Turbine Wheels at Fairmount will probably resume work this evening.

BETHLEMEM, Pa., October 5.—That portion of Bethlehem, between Lehigh river and Monocacy creek is under water. An immense amount of valuable lumber was swept away. Weirsport is completely inundated. The iron bridge opposite the Mansion House at Mauch Chunk was swept away.—Thirty-seven coal barges went over the dam at that point, and were completely wrecked. Broadway is entirely under water, and several houses washed into the stream. The booms at White Haven are all broken, and great rafts of lumber are floating down. The loss to lumber men at White Haven is very heavy. The Lehigh Valley Railroad at Catasauqua is washed away. The Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroad will sustain heavy damages, being washed at many points between White Haven and Bethlehem. The canal is washed east of town.

ALBANY, October 5.—The water in this city is still over the docks and in the streets parallel with the river.—South Broadway is navigated by small boats. Nearly all the basements and cellars east of Green street are flooded.

TROY, October 5.—The flood is unprecedented. The water in the Hudson is eighteen feet above low water mark. Great destruction of property has been done along the Portenkill in this city, the mills being greatly damaged. Up North the country is flooded. Three houses were carried away at Mechanicsville, and a woman named Humphreys was drowned. A Frenchman at Fort Ann was drowned while trying to save his horse. Three men were drowned in the Hudson at this city last night named James Donnelly, Michael Riley and James Flynn. There were two accidents on the Troy and Boston Railroad last night. The first was a collision between a freight and a passenger train. Three employees were injured.

LATER.—The same passenger train was thrown into Hoosic river at Hoosick Falls by a wash in the railroad track, and three lives lost. The names of the killed are Dr. Fuller and wife, of Hoosick Falls, and Charles Allen, of Sand Lake. The conductor, H. J. Clark, was seriously injured. The loss to the West Troy lumbermen by the freshet will reach $210,000.

SARATOGA, October 5.—Accounts from the surrounding country say the storm of Sunday night and Monday morning did more damage than any before known. Scarcely a bridge on the country road about here has been left in good condition Great damage was done in Ballston Spa, and one boy drowned.

NEW HAVEN, October 5.—the most lamentable consequence of the flood in this vicinity is giving way of the great dam over the Housatonic river at Birmingham. Two weeks' work would have completed the structure. Three hundred feet have been destroyed, and more than half the labor of two years swept away. One man was drowned.

HARTFORD, October 5.—Reports of damage by the storm continue to come in. The damage in all parts of the State is very great. The town of Manchester has suffered more than any other place in this vicinity. Not a bridge is left in the town, and not a water wheel is running there to day. The loss of mills, dams and property is estimated at $30,000. The loss to roads and bridges is $30,000. Cheney & Bro's loss is $100,000, in which is included one hundred pieces of silk worth $18,000 to $20,000. At Broad Brook the factory building occupied as a tin shop below and a tenement house was swept away and a young man, woman and five children drowned. A man was also drowned in Higganama. The Hartford, Providence and Fiskill Railroad is open to-day to Waterbury, but the breaks between here and at Willimantic have not been repaired. The New London Northern Road is open from New London to Willimantic, above the latter place. It is impossible to run trains regularly on the Hartford and New Haven Road.

BALTIMORE, October 6.--The damage to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is fully repaired.

AUGUSTA, ME., October 5.—The storm has not yet abated. The river is very high and rising rapidly. Every boom between here and Waterville is broken, and logs are running freely.

LEWISTON, ME., October 5—The rise in the Androscoggin River is unprecedented. Several millions of logs have gone over the falls. J. M. Thompson, proprietor of the Glen House, White Mountains, was drowned and his mill carried away by the flood. Farms along the river are much injured.

BOSTON, October 5.—Reports from Maine and New Hampshire represent the storm as unparalleled in severity. In Concord every street was badly washed and gullied, hundreds of cellars filled and side walks caved in. At West Concord one house was carried away. Long Pond rose two feet. At Farnum crossing the highway was gullied to a width of twenty feet and depth of fifteen feet. Nearly one hundred feet of the bed of the Claremount Railroad was washed out, the rails, in some instances sinking ten feet. The Montreal Road is also reported in a bad condition. Very little damage was done in Boston and vicinity. A small portion of the roof of the Coliseum was blown off.

CONCORD, N. H., October 5.—The Merrimac is higher than last spring. No trains from the North arrived and none left to-day. The culverts of the different roads are badly washed. The trains between here and Boston run regularly.

It is rumored in Washington that the steamer Hornet is afloat on the high seas, bearing the Cuban flag, under a roving commission as privateer from the insurgent chief Slic has since been captured.

Appalling Disaster.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 1.

A terrible accident occurred at the State fair this afternoon. The boiler of Sinker & Co, of this city, exploded a few minutes before 4 o'clock.—There was an immense crowd on the ground at the time of the accident. It is difficult to get the particulars. It is known that twelve persons were instantly killed and a number wounded. The wounded will probably reach one hundred.

The accident at the fair ground this afternoon was the most heartrending that has ever occurred in this vicinity, and has cast a gloom over the entire city. The explosion occurred at four o'clock, when the grounds were crowded with visitors. The boiler was attached to the saw mill of Messrs. Sinker & Co, this city, and had just been fired up for a test of speed with another machine, and arrangements were made to take it up as soon as the trial was over.

Five men, names unknown, and nearly dead, were removed to W. W. Weaver's undertaker's office, where an inquest will be held to-morrow. Many of the bodies are horribly mutilated and burned, and in some cases it will be almost impossible for friends to recognize them. Many of the most severely wounded were conveyed to the Indiana Surgical Institution, the proprietors of which soon heard of the accident and tendered the use of the institute for the wounded, and have been untiring in their efforts to alleviate their sufferings.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 2.—The morning papers give the number of killed by the explosion yesterday at twenty-seven, and wounded at fifty, but the number of the latter is probably more, as many were carried immediately to their homes and their names not reported.

ANOTHER MINING DISASTER.—The Chicago Tribune gives the following particulars of the sad accident which occurred at the coal mines at Gardner, Ill., on Friday evening last:

At about eight o'clock on that evening, as four persons were descending the coal shaft the wire hoisting-rope broke and the men were precipitated, together with the bar upon which they were standing, to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of one hundred and eighty feet. At the news of the accident the most tremendous excitement prevailed among the miners employed in the neighborhood and the citizens of the town. As soon as the facts developed themselves steps were taken to afford the unhappy men relief. With a few slight repairs the second car was brought into requisition and lowered to the bottom of the shaft. Here the sufferers were found, in a badly mangled state, but none of them killed outright. Their names were discovered to be Ben. Harwood, Robert McKinzie, Henry Watts and Edward Sutton. Harwood was so badly injured that he has since died.

There is no satisfactory theory yet given as to the case of the accident.—The steel wire rope, which supports the cage on which the men stood, is said to be capable of sustaining sixteen tons weight. It had been used all that day for hoisting coal.

The weight of the men was but 560 pounds, which was all there was upon the car when the casualty happened. Of course, no blame is attached to the company, as the officers have always spared no pains or cost to make the mine perfectly safe.

Judge Sawyer, of San Francisco, has decided that Chinamen, under the 14th amendment, are competent witnesses. The wheels of progress will turn, in spite of the lamentations of prejudice and short-sightedness.

Brief Items.

The two fairs in Blair county were admitted to be successes.

A young girl named Slick, died suddenly in Johnstown recently.

There were no serious accidents at the fair. Some corns or bunions might have been tramped—that's all.

A black and white dog was beheaded by the wheels of a freight train on Thursday evening last, at the Penna. station.

A gold snuff box, costing $105, was presented to Jos. Parks, Penna. railroad foreman of engines, by his friends in Altoona.

The Altoona Vindicator office was bought by John Hastings, Esq., who has leased it to Mr. James M. Campbell, its former proprietor.

A daughter of John W. Jones, of Cambria county, absented herself from home for nearly a week, and was found stowed away in a neighbor's barn. She is unsound in mind.

The Department of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools favorably considered one hundred and sixty applications for admission into the orphan schools in this state during September

Altoona has a barber named Legrand Davis who saturates the head with a dye that burns the skin entirely off, and then demands five dollars for his barbarous treatment. He is allowed to do this with impunity.

On the fair ground on Friday afternoon as a horse belonging to Mr. Isaac Long was about to trot around the ring, it was frightened at another horse crossing the track, and became unmanageable and broke the shafts of the sulky to which it was attached. This was the only accident during the fair.

Mrs. Barbara Sprankle, of Porter township, whose generosity we noticed in a previous number, has again presented us with a splendid cake. That her mother, Mrs. E. Winters, is equally kind, is proved by the fact that she presented us with some of the best apples it was ever our luck to taste.

Bartol & Dale, merchants of this place, announce that they are selling off their entire stock of goods at cost. It is needless for us to enumerate their stock, as it embraces almost everything, from webs of dry goods to packs of shoe-strings. We would commend a call upon the agreeable gentlemen, and secure your bargains in your purchases.

We are indebted to our genial friend Robt. B. Stewart, for a copy of the Great Trans-Continental Railroad Guide, edited by Bill Dad, the Scribe, (Mr. Athell,) and published by Geo. A. Crofutt & Co., Chicago. The work is replete with useful descriptions of the most noted points along the Central Pacific road, and contains much other valuable and reliable information.

On Saturday night, three weeks ago, the house of John Myers, near Johnstown, was destroyed by fire. It was occupied by two families, all the members of which succeeded in making their escape from the burning building; but sad to relate a little girl named Osborn, residing with Myers, in the excitement of saving themselves, was forgotten and perished in the flames.

That much admired and invaluable fireside journal, the Hearth and Home, intends giving the numbers to the end of this year free to all who subscribe for the next year. Single copies $4, three copies, $9, and five copies at the enormously cheap rate of $12. Do not think it too cheap to be good—it is only too good to be so cheap. Address Pettengill, Bates & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.

The Little Corporal, with a big circulation among the little folks, announces that it will come free for Oct., Nov. and Dec. of this year to all new subscribers for the new year whose names and money are sent to the publishers before the last of October. Beautiful premiums are offered for clubs. Now is a good time to begin. Price, One Dollar a yr., sample copy, 12 cents. Address Alfred L. Sewell & Co., Publishers, Chicago, Illinois.

The Phrenological Journal for October is full of entertaining reading. Among its contents are: George W. Childs the Philadelphia publisher; Philip Phillips, the well-known singer; John A. Roebling, the eminent Civil Engineer; George L. Miller, the Omaha editor; Phrenology, is it a Science? The Phrenologist's Prophecy; Salem Witchcraft; Our Convicts; Vaccinnation; The Tiger, etc., illustrated. Only 30 cents, or $3 a year. Address S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

Rev. G. W. Hamson, of Woodcock, Crawford county, died on Friday, 1st inst, aged seventy years. He was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., and was a graduate of Jefferson College, at Canonsburg, Pa., and studied theology at Princetown. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Erie, April 4th, 1830, was ordained by the same body, and June 27th, 1842, was installed as a pastor of the Presbyterian churches of Titusville and Concord.

The Newport News says: John Phinney, Esq., of Buffalo township, has in his possession a copper plate lined with silver, which was imbedded thirty feet beneath the surface among the iron ore, in Mr. W. H. Shuman's mine. After cleaning it was found to have engraved on its surface two hands—one supine, the other characters on the plate which have not yet been deciphered and a piece of the plate is still imbedded in the rocks. What is inscribed on this plate may, when deciphered, reveal some ancient history of this continent.

The Fair.

The tenth annual Exhibition of the Huntingdon county Agricultural Society, on the 6th, 7th and 8th days of this month, was fully up to the standard of previous exhibitions, and even exceeded them in many respects. The number of people on each day was immense. Wednesday, the first day, was given up to entering the articles and arranging them, and so great was the number that the Committee of Arrangements was obliged to erect another shed, and before Thursday noon that too was filled. All the articles were properly arranged, and those who went through the sheds on Thursday afternoon had presented to their gaze one of the best exhibitions, for variety, quality, size and quantity, that it was ever their good fortune to look upon in a Huntingdon county fair. We forbear entering into a description of what was to be seen, as we would fail to give a proper appreciation or do justice to the scene. The list of premiums which we publish in another column will show who have received the credit in the estimation of the different Committees, but each of the Committees will willingly assert that it was very difficult for them to decide upon what was offered to their inspection. That they succeeded in awarding premiums at all is the wonder, as everything "smiled its prettiest" and sweetmeats tasted their "most elegant", especially when the Committees were before them. In the department of preserves, jellies, &c., there was an endless host of tumblers, jars and bottles, containing just as numberless a host of jellies, &c., that would have made a committee of giants sick to have tasted, let alone the able Committee possessed of smaller stomachs; but somebody did get premiums, and we presume those who did not are just as well satisfied. Then the painting department was very fine, and we noticed many paintings of fruit and landscapes that would have done credit to a first class gallery of fine arts. The embroidery and flower departments were also good; in the former the ladies, it appeared, had done their best to make this feature of the Fair one of attraction and interest, and we noticed many who gazed intently upon the beautiful specimens of handiwork of mother Huntingdon's daughters; in the flower department the display of designs, boquets, baskets, &c., was grand, and no one, with a love of the beautiful, could fail to be pleased with the loveliness that this part of the exhibition afforded. But the vegetable and fruit department is the one which spoke the credit of old Huntingdon county's soil in accents louder than words. Apples, large, luscious and perfect; potatoes, fair, plump, and bright-eyed; cabbages, mammoth, solid and weighty; turnips, beets, pears, pumpkins, eggplants, and the whole list of the vegetable and fruit kingdoms, had each such a representative of its specie that we have never seen equalled. And so we might speak of almost every department, but time and space will not permit. The exhibition of cattle and horses was not as large as in former years, but there were some very good species present, and the quality made up for the lack in quantity.

There was one great inconvenience experienced, and that was the dampness of the ground upon which the fair was held. Pedestrians had mud to contend with everywhere, and the course for horses was bad; but no great fault can be attached to the society on this account. They could not provide in time for the inclemency caused by the wet weather preceding the fair; but they did what they could for the convenience of those present. It is to be hoped that next year, however, the Committee will provide for all such emergencies.

☞ The following premiums were awarded to citizens of Huntingdon county at the fair in Altoona week before last: Best thorough bred stallion, Gen. A. P. Wilson, $50; best three year old stallion, Morrison & Shoemaker, $10; best thorough bred mare and colt Thomas S. McCahan, $20; best lady's pony, Gen. A. P. Wilson, $5; 2d best variety of winter apples, John McComb, $1; best six varieties of peaches, do, $3; finest collection of ferns, [rare plants,] Miss N. J. Davis, Birmingham, $15; best afghan, Miss Sadie King, Birmingham $1; best wax flowers, Mrs. Grier, Birmingham, $1. We notice many other familiar names on the list of former residents of Huntingdon county, who now reside in Blair county.

☞ Mrs. Alice B. Whipple, wife of the Rev. Dr. Whipple, Secretary of American Missionary Association, testified:

"There could be no greater comfort in a family than a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine. I have used one for the last nine or ten years, and I think it is decidedly the best family Sewing Machine."

Green & Brother, of this place, are the agents for the Grover & Baker.

☞ David White, son of Mr. Wm. White, sustained some injuries on Saturday last, by falling from a scaffold, in Altoona. He was brought home in the night train.

☞ A slight fire broke out in the residence of Mr. John Bunn, in Portstown, on Saturday last. The flames were soon extinguished.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Saxton, October 6, 1869.

The Huntingdon Monitor published an article September 29th saying that a copy of his paper sent to Saxton post office has been tampered with, and five out of seven copies stolen; and further that there are a dozen acting postmasters in the office. I must emphatically say that it is a lie; there are but two assistant postmasters in the office, and that the papers arriving at that office are always handed over when called for. One of the subscribers for the paper referred to has ordered me to give his papers to any one calling for them. If lost in that way we are not accountable. The editor of the Monitor refused to give an author—that looks as though it was his own manufacture; and I wish to inform him that Saxton is in Bedford county—he does not seem to be informed. If he is not the author, I want him to give the author's name.

E. Eichelberger,
P. M., Saxton, Pa.

☞ Almost every day we hear many persons complaining of headache, loss of appetite, and that they are not fit to do anything, &c. Many is the day that we have felt so ourselves, and in fact have gond to bed and imagined ourselves sick, but for the life of us could not tell what was the matter. One day while thus complaining, a friend said to us, "Why don't you try Plantation Bitters? they are really a good thing and will make you feel like a new man." Upon his recommendation we purchased a bottle, and took them according to the directions. They seemed to go right to the spot, and gave us immediate relief. Ever since we have taken every opportunity to recommend them.

Also, that in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to executions and for other purposes," approved April 10th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as judge, or inspector or clerk of any general or special election in this commonwealth."

By the act of Assembly of 1869, known as the Registry Law, it is provided as follows:

1. "Election Officers are to open the polls between the hours of six and seven, A. M., on the day of election.—Before six o'clock in the morning of second Tuesday of October they are to receive from the County Commissioners the Registered List of Voters and all necessary election blanks, and they are to permit no man to vote whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote as follows:

2. The person whose name is not on the list, claiming the right to vote must produce a qualified voter of the district to swear in a written or printed affidavit to the residence of the claimant in the district for at least ten days next preceding said election, defining clearly where the residence of the person was.

3. The party claiming the right to vote shall also make an affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief where and when he was born, that he is a citizen of Pennsylvania and of the United States, that he has resided in the State one year, or, if formerly a citizen therein and removed therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election, that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein, that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before the election, and the affidavit shall state when and where the tax was assessed and paid, and the tax receipt must be produced unless the affiant shall state that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he received none.

4. If the applicant be a naturalized citizen, he must, in addition to the foregoing proofs, state in his affidavit when, where, and by what court he was naturalized and produce his certificate of naturalization.

5. Every person, claiming to be a naturalized citizen, whether on the registry list, or producing affidavits as aforesaid, shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years consecutively a voter in the district where he offers to vote; and on the vote of such a person being received, the Election Officers are to write or stamp the word "voted" on his certificate with the month and year, and no other vote can be cast that day in virtue of said certificate except where sons are entitled to vote upon the naturalization of their father.

6. If the person claiming to vote who is not registered shall make an affidavit that he is a native born citizen of the United States, or, if born elsewhere, shall produce evidence of his naturalization, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization, and further, that he is between 21 and 22 years of age, and has resided in the State one year, and in the election district ten days next preceding the election, he shall be entitled to vote though he shall not have paid taxes."

In accordance with the provision of the 8th section of an act entitled "A further supplement to the election Laws of this Commonwealth," I publish the following:

WHEREAS, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, and for other purposes," and approved March 3d, 1865, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship and their rights to become citizens; and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof;

And whereas, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania qualified electors of this Commonwealth

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress, approved March 3d, 1865, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

SEC. 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SEC. 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall for each offence be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act in case of officers of election receiving any such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons, deprived of citizenship or disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner is provided in the second section of this act in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

Particular attention is directed to the first section of the Act of Assembly, passed the 30th day of March A. D., 1556, entitled "An Act regulating the manner of Voting at all Elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth;"

"That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby, hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and be labelled outside "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace all the names of State officers voted for and be labelled "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of Senator, member, and members of Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 67th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one of the judges from each district at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on the third day after the day of election, being the present year on Friday, the 6th of November next, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges. Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken in charge by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of said district, and shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.

Also, that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted that the several general and special elections shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clk. in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

Given under my hand, at Huntingdon, the 14th day of Sept., A. D. 1869, and of the independence of the United States, the ninety-second.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from its use.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Even acclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

PRICE, $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them: those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaints and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be persevered in until cured, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
